Pilot PARTUM Trial: Postpartum Aspirin to Reduce Thromboembolism Undue Morbidity

Postpartum women at modest risk of VTE (deep vein thrombosis or pulmonary embolism) will be randomized to low-dose aspirin daily versus placebo daily for 6 weeks postpartum. Participation is simple:

Thank you for supporting the pilot PARTUM trial!

partumtrial.ca

OMNI Research Group: Rosemary LaRose, 613-737-8899, ext. 75866 INCLUSION 1. Mild inherited thrombophilia: ONE Heterozygous FVL or Heterozygous PGM or PC def or PS def of: 2. Bedrest (90%) for ≥7 days during pregnancy OR 3. Pre-pregnancy BMI ≥30 kg/m² 4. Smoking in past 12 months TWO 5. Past superficial vein thrombosis of: 6. Pre-eclampsia 7. Stillbirth in current pregnancy (>20 weeks) 8. SGA infant <3rd percentile Subjects are excluded if they are >48 9. Unplanned cesarean delivery hrs after delivery, received >2 LMWH 10. Postpartum infection doses or have had a prior VTE.

11. Postpartum hemorrhage

See poster for full eligibility criteria.